

New Features Bulletin

April 2019

Here is a summary of all the new features and changes released in iCrew during April 2019. Links to all other bulletins can be found here.

Added ability to block a member from toggling into sessions

If a member should not be allowed to attend sessions for any reason (fees past due, missing documents, etc.) you can block them by checking the Member is blocked from sessions checkbox on their profile. This action will prevent the member from toggling into any future sessions. In addition, the member will be automatically toggled out of all future sessions (one day grace period is given). Once you unblock a member, they will be allowed to toggle into sessions again.

Added option to refer to port side as “stroke” and starboard side as “bow”

For our non-US customers that do not use the terms “port” and “starboard” when referring to the side of the boat, the terms “stroke” and “bow” are now used.

Side preference:  Stroke  Bow  Either

Default user's organization to last one used and allow switching orgs

For those iCrew users that are part of multiple organizations, either as a coach or athlete, they will no longer be required to select an organization when they log on. Instead, iCrew will default to the last org they had previously accessed in iCrew. In addition, they can switch organizations from the Org Home Page.

Line-ups page now shows average weight of rowers assigned to a boat

On the session line-ups page, the average weight of rowers in a boat is now calculated and displayed next to the average age of the rowers.

Added ability to go back a specific number of sessions to copy line-ups

Now when you use the Get previous line-ups feature, you'll be asked how many sessions back you would like to go to retrieve line-up. Previously iCrew always went back just one session.

Boats and oars now included when copying previous session's line-ups

Now when you copy line-ups from a previous session, the boats and oars are also included.

Added ability to clear boat line-ups

You can now clear rowers from a boat line-up or you can clear all rowers from all boat line-ups. Look for the trashcan icons on the Line-ups page.

Test results saved in total seconds when extracting test results

Now when you extract test results, the time is saved in total seconds so that the data is easier to work with in Excel

Fee item description now displayed on My Payments tab

Members will now see the full description of a fee item on their My Payments tab.
